happiness is found in the little things

There is that in me — I do not know what it is — but I know it is in me . . .

I do not know it — it is without name — it is a word unsaid; It is not in any dictionary, utterance, symbol.

Something it swings on more than earth I swing on.

To it the creation is the friend whose embracing awakes me . . .

It is not chaos or death — it is form, union, plan — it is eternal life — it is Happiness.

Walt Whitman, "Song of Myself"

the days that make us happy make us wise

john masterfield

As on the smooth expanse of crystal lakes,

The sinking stone at first a circle makes;

The trembling surface by the motion stirr'd,

Spread in a second circle, then a third;

Wide, and more wide, the floating rings advance,

Fill all the wat'ry plain, and to the margin dance.

Pope, "Temple of Flame"

we're born to be happy

The action is best which produces the greatest happiness for the greatest numbers; and that worst, which in like manner, occasions misery.

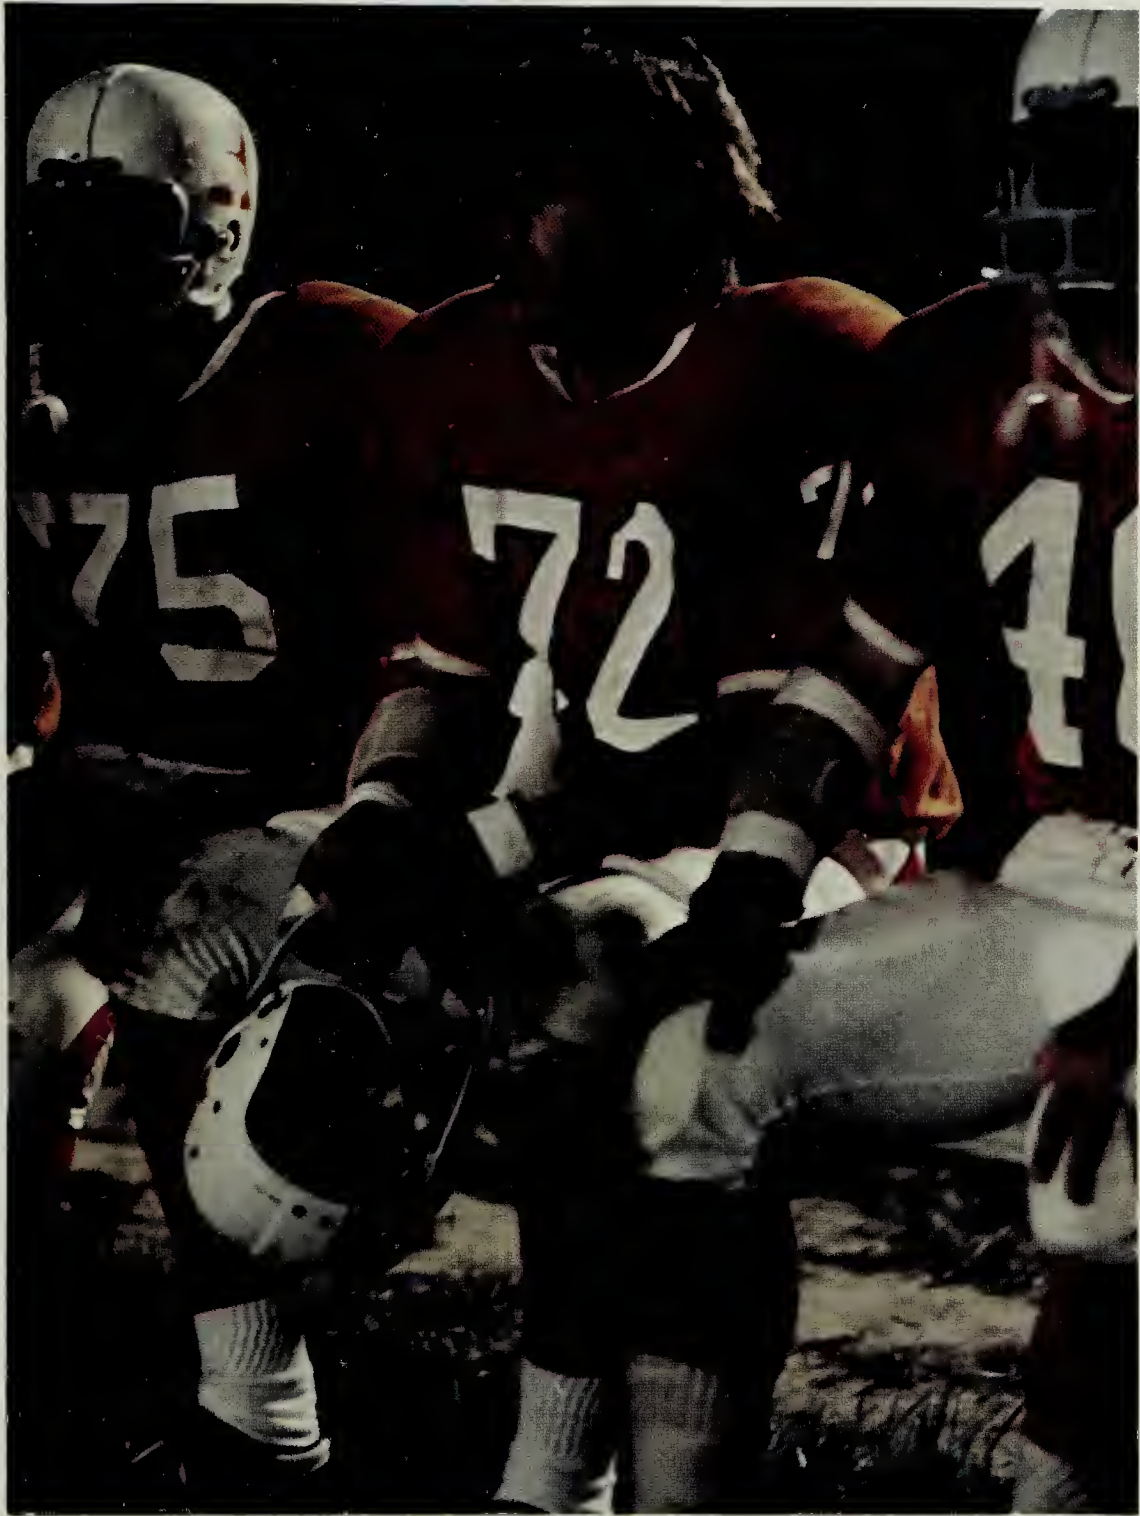

Francis Hutcheson

Every man is the center of a circle whose fatal circumference he cannot pass.

John James Ingalls

you have to believe in happiness

to fill the hour — this is happiness

Happiness is above all things the calm, glad certainty of innocence.

Henrik Ibsen

Life at Hayfield revolves around the students as they learn and grow through everyday experiences. To learn now is to benefit later; to be happy now is to bring a bright future closer. The time to be happy is now. The place to be happy is Hayfield. The way to be happy is to make others so.

Hayfield's first graduating class awaits the future.

A few steps, . . . a nod, . . . and high school days were memories.

Three hundred and seventy-two seniors, the first class to graduate from Hayfield Secondary, received their diplomas June 10, 1971.

The message, the commencement program, the sight of friends going, each left a different memory for the graduates. Each senior left with a tight hold on his diploma, a handshake, and a few steps into his future.

Before presenting diplomas, Mr. Worley, the administration, and guest speaker, Mr. Hoofnagle view the assembled class of '71 for the last time.

Enthusiasm rates number one

Pride and enthusiasm are essential parts in the making of a school. Both of these qualities are found in Hayfield students and are displayed the greatest at the athletic contests. During the week and before games spirit is built by pep rallies and hall decorations. At the rallies, the teams and cheerleaders are introduced and the marching band and drill team give enthusiastic performances. The lockers and halls are decorated by members of Tri-Hi-Y, Keyettes, and cheerleaders.

Mike Henchman starts the victory march.

The Hawks 1971 football season was highlighted with victories, halftime shows, and surprises. Despite the lack of pep rallies, spirit prevailed at Hayfield and our teams' victories greatly outweighed their losses. The majorettes, band and drill team provided entertainment for the enthusiastic crowds. For a change of pace there were two student faculty games.

Student life is a hectic one at Hayfield because of the numerous activities occurring throughout the year. Bake sales, dances and assemblies use the talents of the students. From time to time visiting groups come to perform before the student body and the faculty.

The many sides of hayfield

The student at Hayfield though striving to obtain his individual goals learns to relate and communicate with his fellow students. Through academic and social encounters the exchange of ideas and comparisons of opinions are valuable for the maturity of the individual.

Hayfield's football season was highlighted by its first Homecoming game and dance. The theme was "The Wonderful World of Disney" with half-time entertainment, floats and dance. Our defeated opponent, Mt. Vernon, sadly viewed the night's proceedings. After the ten court princesses were driven around the field, the Homecoming Queen was crowned by Gary Jones. The stands were filled with alumni and students greeting old friends. The dance and game were a memorable success. Both were well attended by the alumni as well as students.

Besides the academic classes that go on at Hayfield, there is also another side to Student Life. The every day class schedules are often altered by actions of the student body.

Madrigals, in Christmas attire, boost student morale with a different kind of spirit.

The talent at Hayfield encompasses a wide variety of interests. Among the many organizations that help students develop these interests are Drum and Sandal, Madrigals, and other creative craft clubs. One of the many programs sponsored by these clubs was the Madrigal dinner in which guests were served a hearty English dinner while the Madrigals performed a program of traditional carols.

Spring trackmen break school records

With its first senior class in its second year against varsity competition, this team made many notable accomplishments. Their times, heights and distances were competitive with the best individuals in Virginia. Barry Miller, a miler, made the most notable accomplishments by finishing second in the Northern Region and fourth in the Varsity State mile run championship.

Last year's Girl's track team completed a very successful season. After competing in all of the district meets, the team easily captured the Gunston District Title. Two team members, Debra Suttle and Carol Muglia, qualified for regionals. From there, Carol Muglia went on to state where she finished tenth in the 440 individual competition.

Golf team

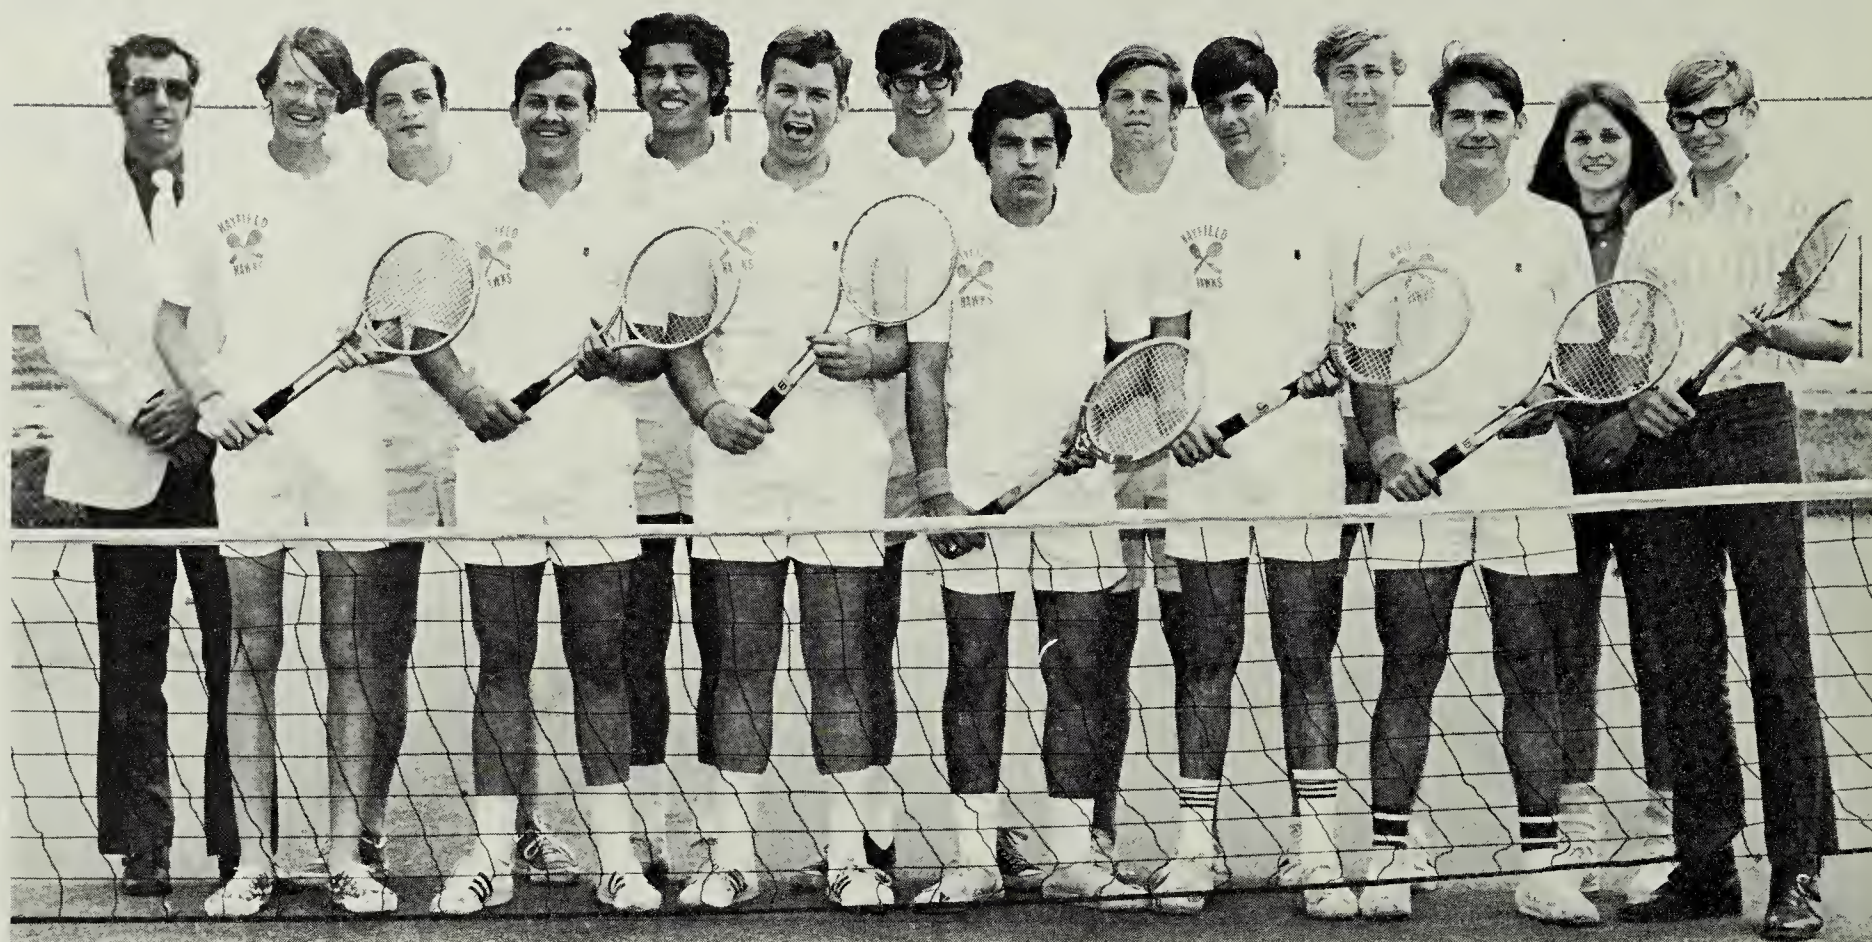

Under the direction of Coach Cavaiola, the golf team finished the season with two wins, four losses, and one tie. Six team members were awarded letters, and five of these lettermen will be returning to competition again this year trying to improve upon last year's record. Two Hayfield golfers, John Pascale and Rich Walker competed in the Regional Golf Tournament. Matches were played at Belle Haven, Springfield, and Woodlawn Country Clubs.

Seven lettermen are returning to help Coach Yohe improve upon last year's disappointing 2-5 record. Unlike the majority of schools, Hayfield's tennis strength lies in Sophomore and Junior players. Mike Wright and John Dashiell were the two main assets to the team. Despite a poor record, Hayfield's tennis team aroused much fan interest. Two of the fans were awarded plaques by the team for their loyalty to the team.

J. V. baseball

Steve Stinette stretches to complete a double play.

Hayfield's Junior Varsity Baseball team finished the season with an 8-6 record in last year's competition. Offensively, Warren Wilson and Chuck Hughes had .391 and .318 batting averages respectively. Chuck Hughes was the leading baserunner with 7 thefts and 12 runs scored. Defensively, Steve Stinette, Steve Lam and Steve Goll ended in a three way tie for the team lead in strikeouts with 11 each.

Cochran signs with pros

Leading the Hayfield Varsity Baseball team to a 10-9 record in District Competition, Marc Cochran became Hayfield's first baseball player to sign a professional contract when he was picked by the Houston Astros in the draft.

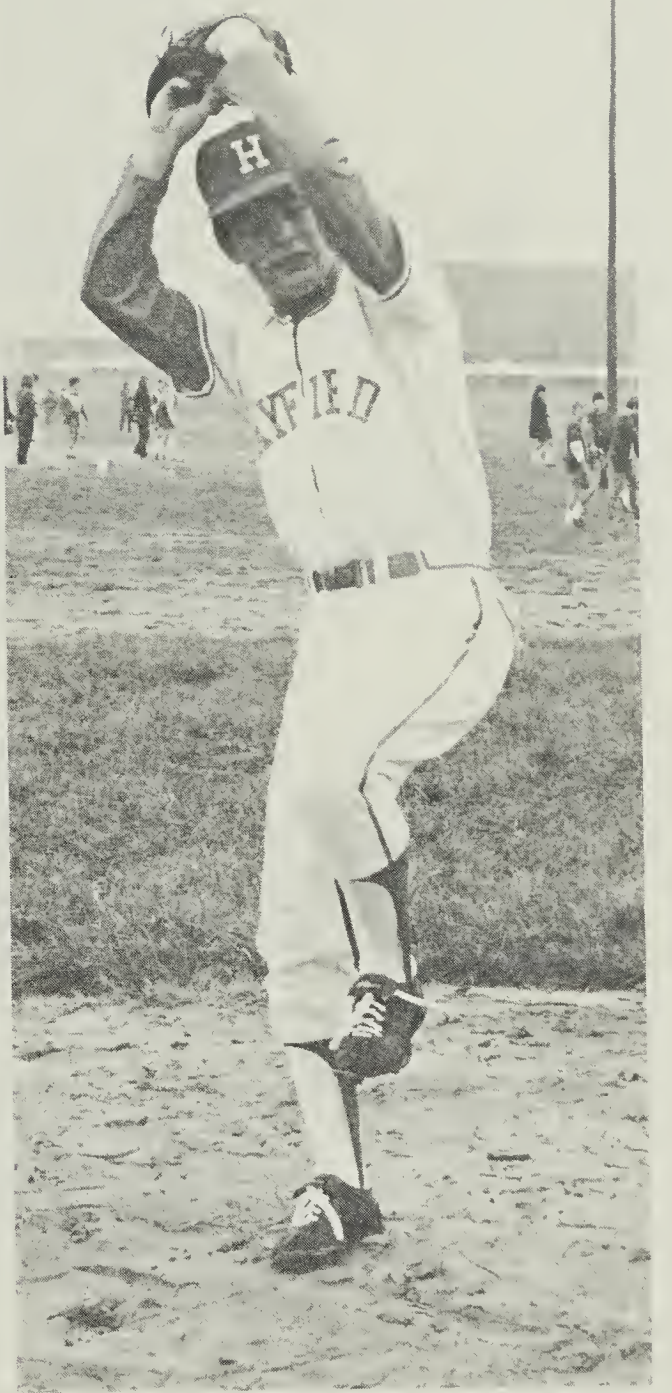

Cochran led the team offensively, with six homeruns and 25 RBI's, and received a trophy for being the Most Valuable Player. Other trophies were awarded to Alex Hall for improvement and to Scott Deane for Sportsmanship. Three Hayfield players made the all Gwinnett District Team: Marc Cochran — catcher, Scott Deane — first base, Alan Breed — pitcher.

Under the fine leadership of Coach Jim Walthall, this year Hayfield battled its way into a tie for the number one spot in the Gunston District, along side both Mt. Vernon and Ft. Hunt. Hayfield surpassed last year's 5-4-1 overall record with six wins and four losses. Led by many fine Seniors and by a number of outstanding Sophomores and Juniors, the Hawks wrapped up 4 come-from-behind victories and ripped arch-rival, Edison, 34-0. Hayfield became one of the only three schools able to score against the state champions, T. C. Williams. Despite the loss of our Senior players Hayfield looks toward the future with high hopes of again winning the title.

Girls gymnastics

The Hayfield gymnastics team under the supervision of Miss Copenhaver has progressed from 15 members last year to a large team this year. The team had a regular schedule of 5 meets of which 3 were won. Hayfield won the district title and Kathy Racherbaumer obtaining the title of 1st place all-around, Krista Carter was named 1st place in advanced tumbling in the district, with Sandy Stumbaugh getting a first in beginning tumbling. In the county meet Lyn Karwaki took a 3rd place all-around for Hayfield. Ten girls from Hayfield qualified for the county meet. Hayfield plans to send 15 members of the team to Regionals and we wish them the best of luck.

Those athletes participating in indoor track during the winter will very likely be seen competing again in the spring. These boys, having had the opportunity to practice and compete during the winter season, will have an added advantage over the others in the spring, with better times and distances.

Weekly triangular meets were held in Hayfield's gym.

In addition to these meets, were the large meets at the Naval Academy, D.C. Armory, University of Maryland and the State Meet at V.M.I. A new invitational meet was organized this year by the C.Y.O. in which Hayfield placed second.

Cross country wins district championship

Coached by Charles "heartless" Hollis this years cross-country team was led by seniors Barry Miller, Gary Darby, Bob Hammersley, Chris Crawley, Rod Cupka and underclassmen Virgal Fields, Maury Fearington, and Bruce Ellis. They fought their way up from fourth place in the district to have an undefeated fourteen win season. This secured the first boys Varsity Gunston District Championship for Hayfield. The team placed fifth in the region, and earned the right to compete in State competition. With outstanding efforts by Barry Miller finishing second in District, third in regional, and fifth in the State meet, the team finished eighth in the State.

The ads section has proved to be invaluable in the completion of this yearbook. Ads have given this yearbook the financial aid it has needed in order to afford such extras as color and special effects.

Thespians promote the spirit of drama

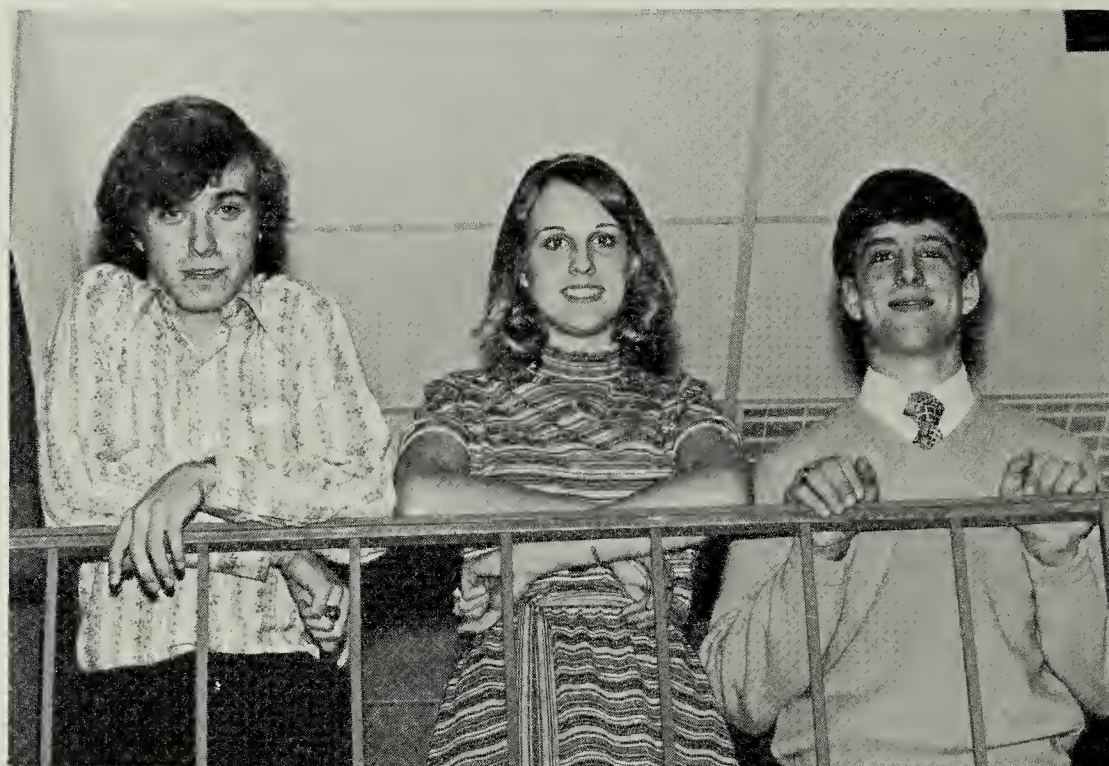

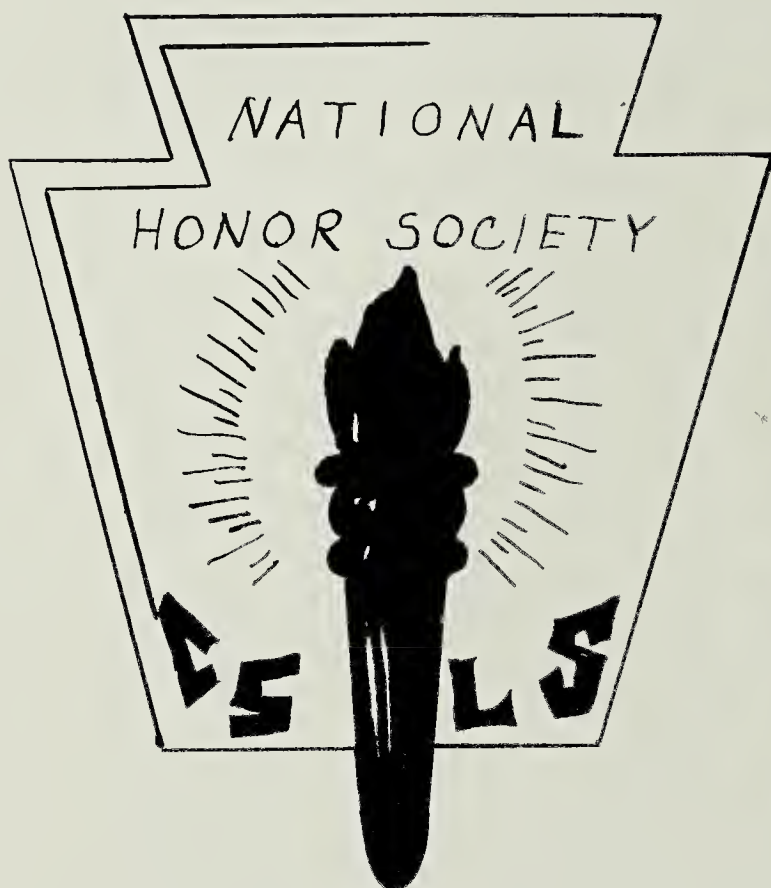

All the world's a stage . . .

The National Thespian Society promotes the spirit of drama and gives special recognition to those showing superior talent in this area. The group's activities this year included a taffy sale in September, and in October, a candy apple sale. The Thespians sponsored Hayfield's entry into Virginia's "One Act Festival", and the MADD Festival benefited by the contribution of a one-act play. A trip to a children's hospital was also planned.

The National Junior Honor Society is a club which honors those students having achievements both academically and socially. The members are chosen first scholastically, each member must have an eighty-five percent average, then by their accomplishments in leadership, citizenship, character, and service to others.

The Junior Honor Society this year made a spirit banner for Hayfield which is in the gymnasium.

Robbins, J. Kridle.

This was the Girls' Athletic Association's first year at Hayfield. G.A.A. is a national organization to support girls' athletics and recognize the outstanding achievement and performance by girls in sports and sport related activities. G.A.A. ran the concessions during the varsity games and held several successful social activities. All girls were members of G.A.A. The number of points each received determined the active members. These girls did a great job, with the help of Miss Copenhaver, to make their first year a successful one.

Officers: President, L. McAleese; Vice-President, M. Rizer; Secretary, L. Karas; Chaplain, D. Voitt; Treasurer, D. Peyton; Not pictured: Historian, B. Rose; Parliamentarian, K. Francois.

Members of the Tri-Hi-Y strove to create, maintain and extend high standards of christian character in the home, school, and community. One of the girls' major projects was the painting of the goal posts and the press box orange and white. Tri-Hi-Y members also cleared the football field of debris after home games. Other activities included a Christmas canned food drive, pompon sales, the sponsoring of football and basketball secret locker pals and a football team picnic.

Keyettes endeavor to serve their community

Keyettes successfully achieved their motto "We Serve" during the '71-'72 school year at Hayfield. The Christmas bazaar, held in the gym lobby, was one of their community efforts. The girls worked hard to insure the success of this project. Other services included a homemade cake sale to the teachers, serving gatorade to the football team after home games, and sponsoring wrestlers as secret locker pals.

Additional activities consisted of a soap sale, a drinking contest using baby bottles and gatorade, and an "Ugly Man" contest in the fall.

A new goal of the Keyettes was to promote friendship and sisterhood within the club. One method was adopting secret sister locker pals.

Behind the scenes, the Key Club worked hard to plan and carry out its activities. Some outstanding events were their annual shoe-shine, a Christmas tree sale, and co-sponsor of the Sweetheart Dance. The club created a new image for itself this year which will hopefully remain as one of the notable traditions of Hayfield.

Smiles add to Pep Club's success

Hayfield's Pep Club expanded its membership to 100 members this year. They helped the cheerleaders boost spirit at school and athletic games. The girls made orange uniforms and added a pom-pom. During basketball and wrestling season, the club divided into two groups in order to support both sports. The club had a very successful year and Hayfield was benefitted by its activities.

The Hayfield Harvester staff has again worked hard to publish an outstanding yearbook. Under the direction of our "do-nothing" sponsor, Mrs. Virginia Thomason and our "do-nothing" editor-in-chief, Sheliah Uhlfelder, the staff succeeded in creating, compiling, and publishing a reminder of good times and hard work that went together to make the '71-'72 school year one that everyone will remember.

Literary talents displayed by hayfield students

The literary talents of Hayfield High School were displayed throughout the year in the publications of the Heritage and the literary magazine, Reflections.

The newspaper staff presented many controversial, yet informative articles. The Heritage included thorough sports coverage, various editorials, and information about activities. The literary magazine came out in May. It included short stories, poems, art work and photography. These successful publications made evident the literary potential at Hayfield and provided interesting reading for the students.

A black and white photograph of a tiger walking on a rug with a circular, concentric stripe pattern. The tiger is positioned on the left side of the frame, moving towards the right. A large, solid black circle is overlaid on the right side of the image, containing white text. The overall composition is abstract due to the strong geometric patterns of the rug and the circular overlay.

With the concurrence of their last year, the senior class of 1972 will look ahead to enter the circle of life. This year, being the last, is both a meaningful and fulfilling one. The senior class began its year by establishing the Hayfield Homecoming tradition.

Twelve in top ten?

Mary, where are your books?

Once having marched over the Margins of ainal necessity, over the grim line of sheer subsistence, Then man came to the deeper rituals of his bones, to the lights lighter than any tones, to the time for thinking things over, to the dance, the song, the story, or the hours given over to dreaming, once having so marched.

Between the finite limitations of the five senses and the endless yearnings of man for the beyond the peoples hold to the humdrum bidding of work and food while reaching out when it comes their way for lights beyond the prison of the five senses, for keepsakes lasting beyond any hunger or death. This reaching is alive.

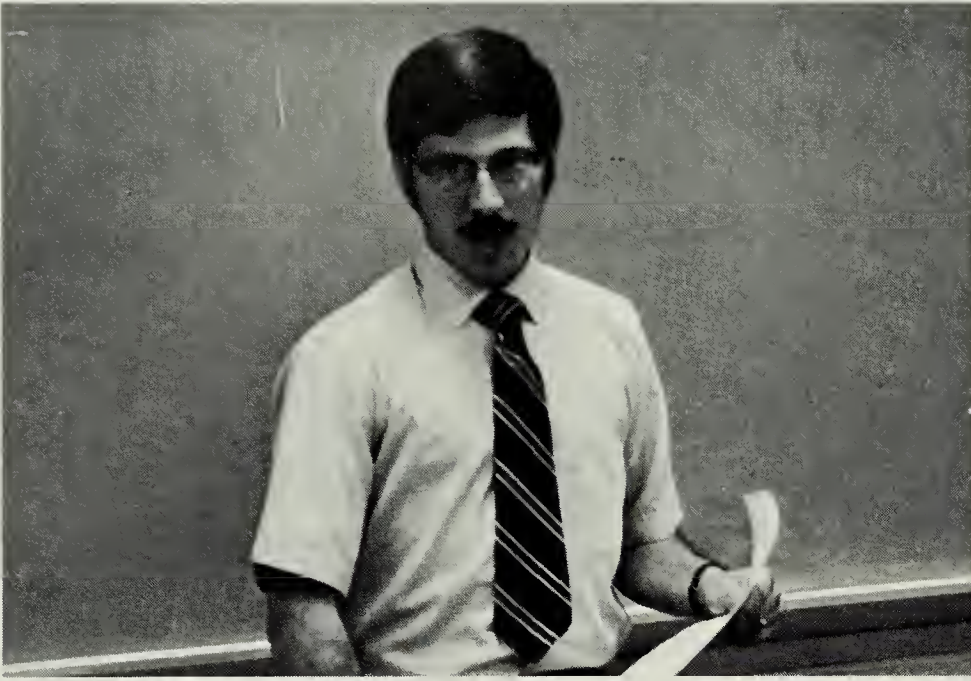

I could still be your best

Underclassmen at Hayfield make up the majority of the Hayfield Secondary Complex. The underclassmen are experiencing the most meaningful and conflicting years of their lives. In each subschool the students plan many activities to unify both the subschool and the entire school.

Hamilton hall completes the circle

Mr. Derringer; Intern.

Starting its second year in existence, Hamilton Hall hoped to make the students of the Hall proud of their sub-school. Starting with a new principal, Dr. Thomas Murray and new officers; President, Jeannie Cooper; Vice President, Annamarie Bolland; Secretary, Edith Bell; and Treasurer, Larry Emerson. Working together they achieved this goal. Hamilton Hall sponsored such activities as a Thanksgiving Dance and a Spirit Week

Mr. Dillard; Intern.

Dr. Murray; Principal.

Mrs. Gilbert; Secretary.

Miss Jones; Guidance.

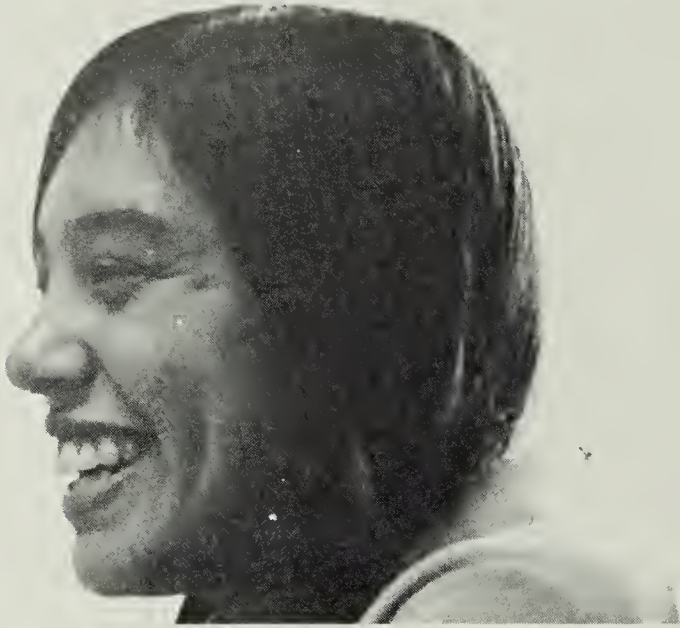

Mr. Crain; Guidance.

ROW ONE: P. Brown, B. Bell, L. McKee, J. Davis, J. Carlton, A. Beaman; ROW TWO: L. Ajer, T. Beckley, J. Ajer, B. Tillery, E. Davis, K. Stockdale, J. Winslett.

Hamilton hall's officers for 72

Jeannie Cooper: President.

I like spaghetti . . . but really!

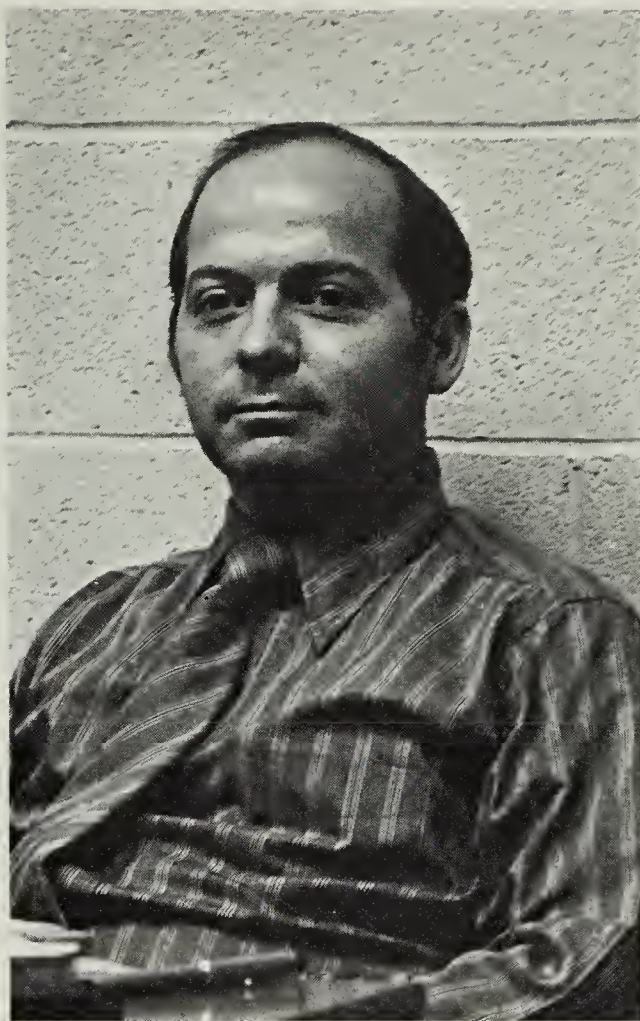

Washington Hall started off this year with a student-faculty football game. They sponsored the first dance of the year with the theme: Harvest Hop. Washington Hall was represented well at Homecoming with their float, Snow White and the Seven Dwarfs. Success has been shown through these many activities and also the hard work and determination of our SCA officers and representatives.

Mr. Charles V. McCormick, Principal

Counselor; Mrs. Shirley Aiken

Counselor; Mr. Leonard Evans

Secretary; Mrs. Patricia Hill

Administration exemplifies sincere concern

Go, jefferson, go

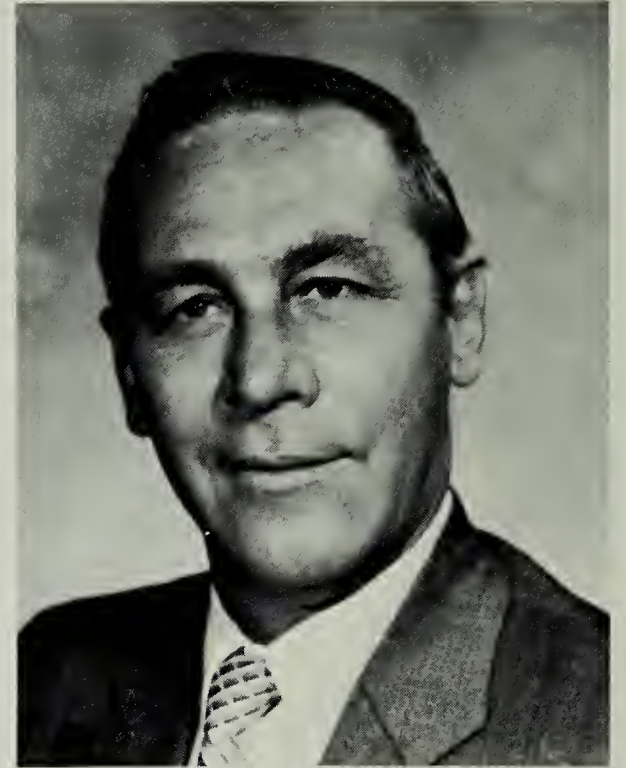

The faculty is a vital part of the circle of activities at Hayfield. The members of the faculty are concerned with meeting the individual needs of the students. Hayfield possesses one of the most talented as well as an energetic faculty.

Principal

Mr. Worley worked closely with faculty and students in endeavors to close the communication gap. He made several significant changes in administrative policy, and willingly lent his guidance and leadership in the areas of student government. He did his utmost to ascertain that the student body of Hayfield had a hand in the organization and governing of its school.

Mr. Floyd W. Worley, principal

Mr. Worley also enjoys the student activities at Hayfield.

"It's for you!" says Mr. Jim Walters; Director of Activities.

Mr. J. Moody; Director of Pupil Services

School administrators

Mr. John Oliverio, Associate Principal.

Mr. Peter Visnich, Administrative Assistant.

Fine arts department

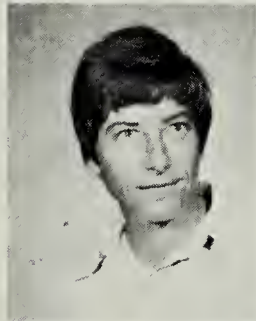

The Fine Arts Department affords students the opportunity to pursue special interest in the arts on the high-school level. The drama portion of the department produced "Our Town" and worked on smaller scale activities which were presented during the MADD Festival. The Music and Art portions of the department also presented assemblies and displays.

Practical arts department

The Pratical Arts Department enables the students to cope with problems of technological and industrial nature. It also helps the students to utilize homemaking skills and to strengthen home and family living. The home economics classes prepared Thanksgiving and Christmas dinners and held open houses at these times. This year also finds a Child Development course offered which enables the students to work with children.

The English Department is organized on a subschool level, and the electives last for a period of nine weeks. Each unit is planned by a specific teacher and covers such areas as the Old West, grammar, reading, youth and problems of today. The purpose of the units is to provide the student with varied curriculum, to broaden his understanding of human experiences and to increase his knowledge of grammar and creative writing.

The business

The Business Department offers many different courses. This year, business law and math courses were introduced, along with the typing, stenography, Vocational Office Training, distributive education, and data processing courses. The VOT enables the students to work in a simulated office environment in order to prepare them for stepping into part-or full-time jobs. Distributive education allows the student to prepare for employment in the fields of marketing and distribution. The courses offered in this department also provide a foundation for continuance of this type of learning on a higher level.

The foreign language department has been successful in teaching the student to read, write, and speak in a language other than his own. Aids such as tapes, records, and film strips are used to give the student background, as well as a taste of the culture of the country whose language he is studying. Novels by distinguished authors of various historical periods are also used to aid students in building their foreign vocabulary. It is hoped that through this program, the students will become better acquainted with the country as well as the language they chose to study.

The occupational education department

The Occupational Education Department continued to help in equalizing opportunities for all students. They have benefitted greatly from the audio-visual equipment and similar aids from the Media Center. The smallness of the classes also enabled the teachers to aid the students on a more personal basis. This department has done outstanding work in helping deserving students.

Cosmetology

Mrs. J. Kott Mrs. V. Moton

Cosmetology is offered in a three-hour block, five days a week. This system of study consists of fifteen hundred hours of theory study and training. It results in the student being able to take the State License Examination and becoming an operating cosmetician.

The girls learn by using "dummies".

The physical

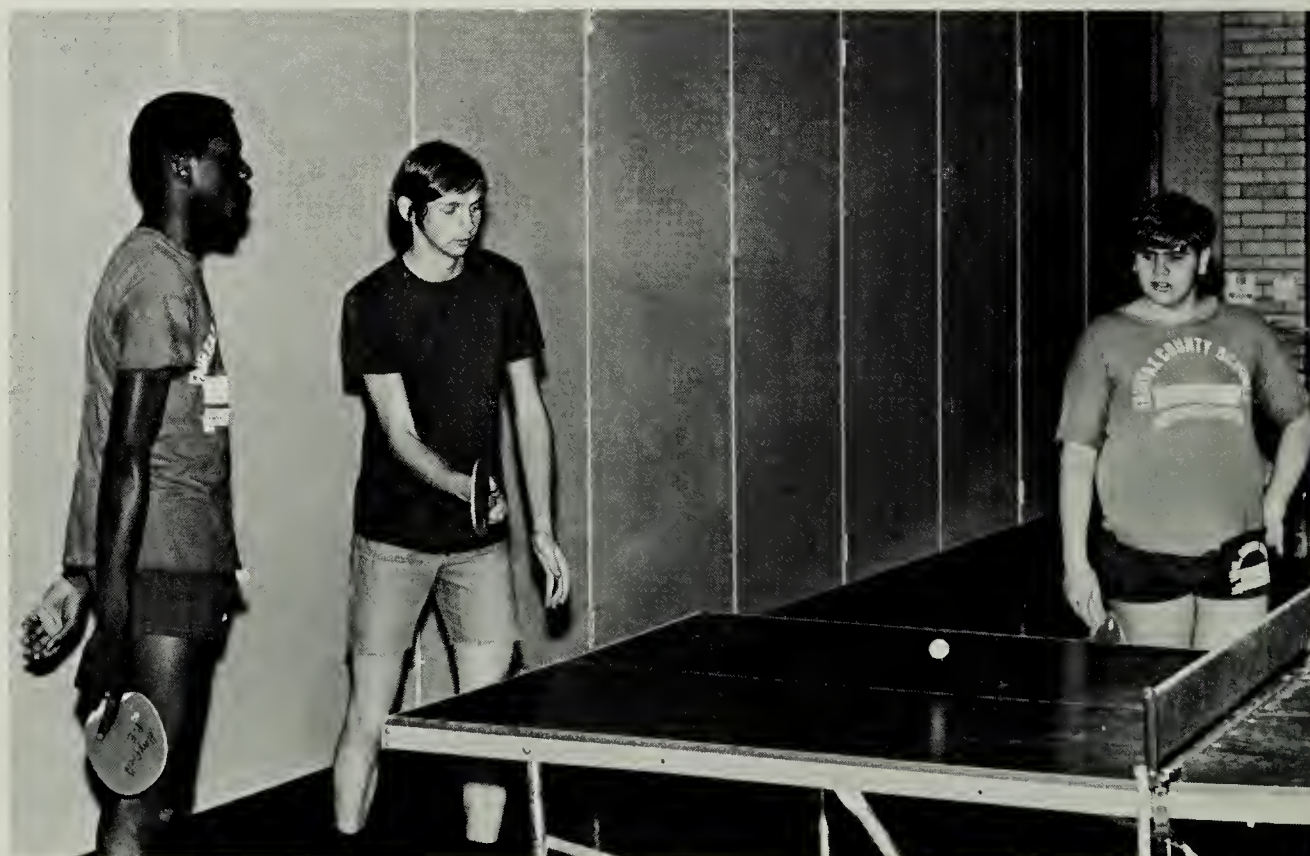

A revelation for Hayfield this year was the initiation of co-educational physical education classes. Boys and girls shared in such activities as volley-ball, gymnastics, and archery. The elective program begun last year was used once more, and was the recipient of quite favorable results.

The mathematics department

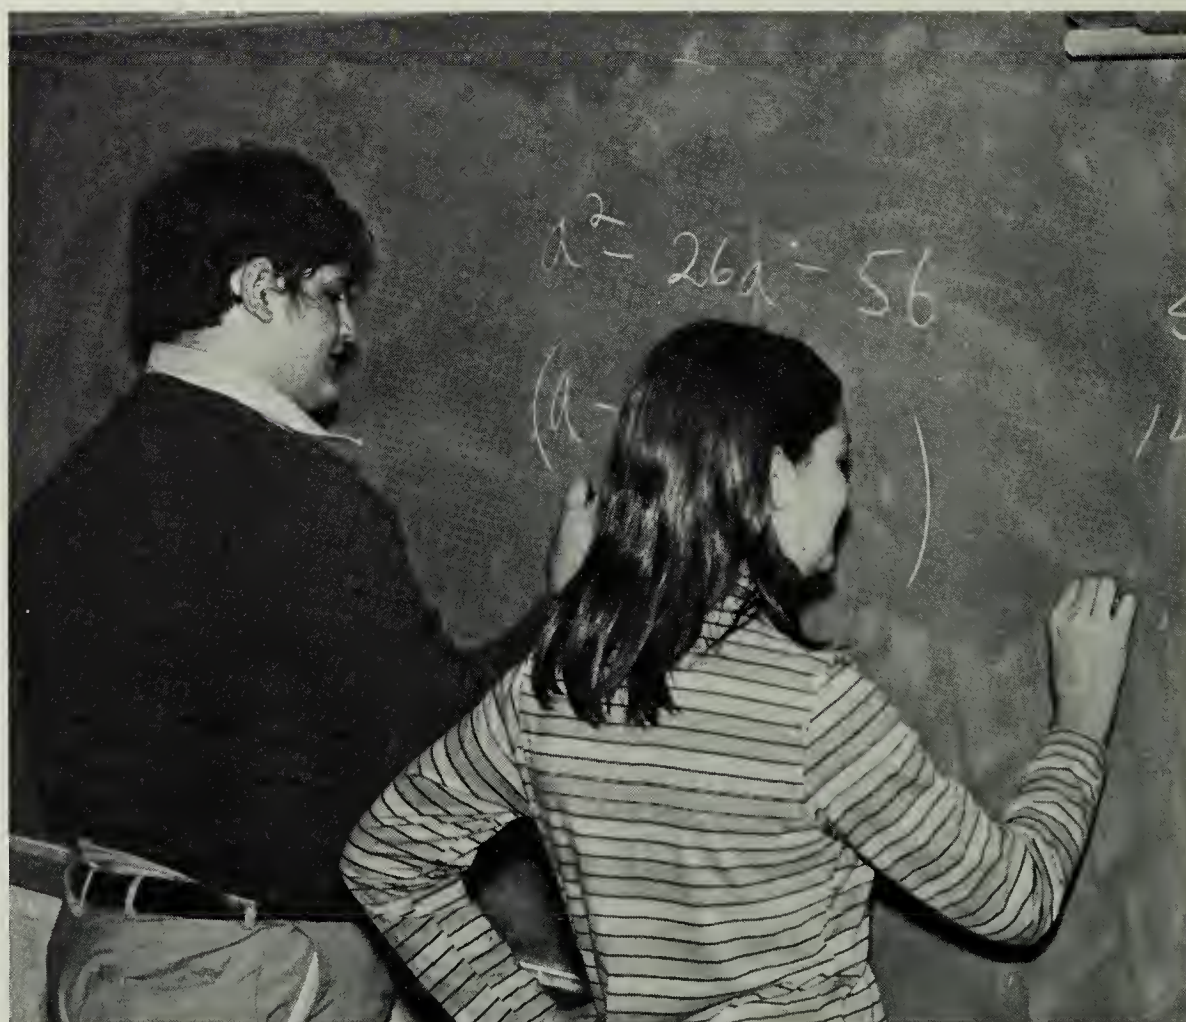

Mr. Eide in a pensive moment.

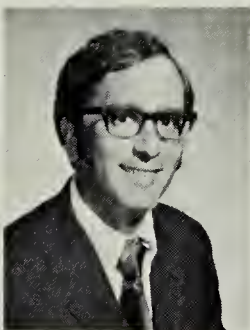

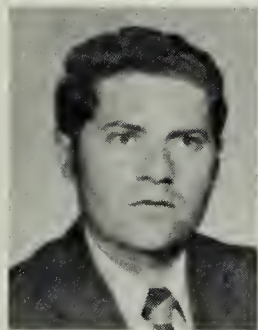

Mr. Richard Evans

Within the Mathematics Department, the individualized Algebra I-Geometry program worked its way through a second and even more successful year. The process of studying at one's own rate made it easier for the student to grasp each concept of his particular course of study, and to be better prepared to put them to use in his next "contract." The traditional methods of learning and teaching were also employed, and were equally as successful as the newer program.

The Science Department continued to aid students in developing the basic concepts necessary for studying any field of science. All of the science courses offered satisfy the prerequisite of laboratory science courses necessary for graduation. The vastly developing innovations in the Science Department are leading to a more specialized means of study in this field.

The social studies department

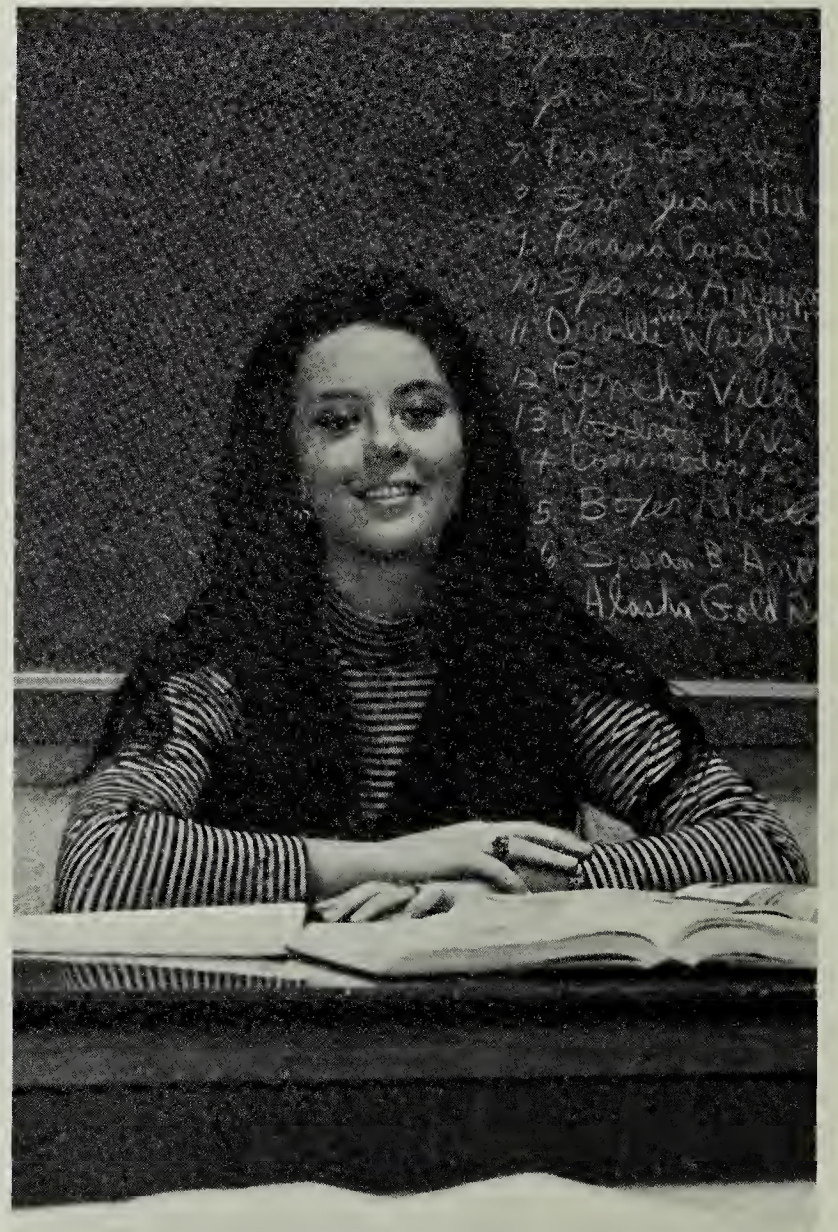

The Social Studies Department continued with the elective program in the United States and Virginia History and Government classes. However, the elective period was lengthened from four and one-half weeks to nine weeks. The choices included foreign policy, political science, teenagers and law, civil rights, the Supreme Court, and stock markets. Along with the Economics, Sociology, and Psychology courses was offered a course in Russian history, which many students found extremely enjoyable. More variations in the study of history are expected to be introduced to increase student interest in the subjects.

Hayfield life begins and ends with activities — as with a circle its beginning is its end. Students work concurrently to form a whole. Each activity plays a vital part in completing the circle of life and knowledge at Hayfield.

Remember when —

... We played 4 square every recess.

... We had recess and boys chased girls with granddaddy long legs.

... We had air raid drills and crawled under our desks.

... We entered Junior High School.

... Our first love.

... Our first Heartbreak.

... The last day of Junior High School.

... Lunches cost .25.

... We liked school.

... We only had freshman and sophmores at Hayfield.

... We had kazoo bands.

... Hayfield shared a school.

... We rode the early bus instead of the late bus.

... Hayfield got its own school and there were piles of sand in the back hall.

... Our first senior class graduated.

... We had our first homecoming and Mickey Mouse was there.

... Three-fourths of the band was covered with mud from the rainy football game.

... We did our homework?

... We thought graduation was a long way off ...

... and then — We wish graduation were once again a long way off rather than a long time ago.

Graduation is just a small segment of the never ending circle of life. It is only a beginning ...

This is not only the last page of the yearbook but it also means the last of our high school years. This book reflects a small part of our lives. It has given us a chance to express many of our ideas. All of this would not be possible without the help of the following people—

Mrs. Virginia Thomason, our faculty advisor, who has always given freely of her time and experience in order to help us. She always respected our ideas as well as offering her own.

Mr. Craig Henry, our photographer, who put up with our nonsense for one year. He would always willingly come and fit into our unorganized schedule. Thanks and the best of luck in selling cars.

Mrs. Nancy Ruffner, our intermediate sponsor, who came through with her well done intermediate Section. She took on a big load which helped us a lot.

Mr. Neal Watson, our American Yearbook Representative.

without his help and advice we would have never met our deadlines. Thanks to Howard and Ruth Marler who have provided us with many candids and were always there at deadline times.

We thank Mr. Tim Goss for his assistance and we also wish him the best of luck in the photography business.

We also thank Mr. Lelansky who provided us with many sports' candids.

All of this would not have been possible without the staff. They were all great in getting the job done well and in meeting the deadlines. We are sure they are glad it's over too. A special thanks to Charlie Sterner who has put up with our constant nagging all year — but it's over. We wish him luck with next year's book because he'll need it.

It's been great!
